Questions and Answers

How long does it take to process an application? It takes approximately 2 to 3 business days to process an application. Make sure the information you provide is accurate. The time frame may be extended if your landlord or employment references are either uncooperative or unavailable. An application would be denied if the information you provide to us could not be verified in a timely manner.

On what basis will my application be screened? By the size of your household, credit history, rental history, criminal record, income and expenses.

How do you verify my income if I am self-employed? Self-employed persons need to submit their last two years tax returns documenting income sufficient to pay the monthly rent.

What is the most common procedure for renting a property? First, drive by the property to be sure that the neighborhood is suitable and the appearance of the home is acceptable. Then call the management office to either schedule an appointment for viewing the interior of home, or find out the time and date of scheduled showings (open houses.)

Can I submit an application even if there is not a property immediately available that I like? Yes. You may submit an application to be approved for a future available property. The processing fees will not be refunded, even if no properties become available that suit your needs.

If I meet all rental qualifications and I want to put a deposit on a rental property, will you hold the property for me until I want to move in? Not necessarily. Your application would be approved for a property subject to a definite agreeable date for starting rental payments. Properties are not held for any extended period or time, usually a maximum of three days. If property is occupied, the agreement would be set to begin your rental period upon present occupant's departure.

After I rent a property, how do I get maintenance? Notify your property management office of the problem and the property management clerk will advise you of the procedure for the problem you are having.

If it is easier for me, can I make repairs I think are needed and deduct from the rent? No. The rental agreement does not permit the tenant to fix or alter the rental property in any manner without the consent of the landlord.

May I change the paint, carpets or drapes if they do not suit me? No. The rental agreement does not permit the tenant to fix or alter the rental property in any manner without the consent of the landlord. The property is being rented in its present condition. If the property does not suit you, do not make an application to rent.

Will the property be clean and ready for occupancy? All our properties are professionally cleaned and sanitized prior to any new occupant taking possession.

If I have an emergency, such as fire or smoke, what do I do? Call 911 immediately. For any life-threatening emergency, call emergency services at 911 immediately. After their response, then notify the management company.

I need to move, what is the procedure? Depending on the status of your lease, whether it's a month-to-month or a fixed term, you will need to contact the management office for cleaning and vacating instructions. Tenants are required to provide a 30-days written notice of their intent to end their tenancy (no exceptions). Tenants are responsible for paying rent to the end of their fixed term lease, or if month-to-month, tenants are responsible for paying each day's rent in the "Notice to Vacate" time period. Each unit is considered occupied and rent will be charged until all keys and other opening devices (remotes) are returned to the management office.
